Mina's mother sends her dearly-loved daughter on a stunning journey to an – extraordinary – place: the music school Cantus Magus. Mina has just jumped off the magical coach at her destination when she gets to know her very stern tutoress Ms. Balalaika. But all worries fly away the moment Mina meets her new roommate Amy and the little vampire Scott. They make good friends and mutually support each other to pass their challenging entrance exam as if by magic. Mina's Adventures - The Tree of Wonders. The first episode of a whole series of enchanting musical adventures filled with passion for detail. The perfect gift for all fans of radio plays.
